

Tangerine sch

UPBEAT AND ON TREND, ORANGE IS EVERYWHERE YOU LOOK, FROM FURNITURE

1 Orla Kiely's own-range furniture was such a hit that Heal's asked for a collection. Rowan sideboard, £1,465, from Heal's. 2 The Diana E is a side table, lectern and modern classic; £790, from aram.co.uk. 3 The handmade Felidae chair from Somerville Scott is the best of British design; £1,125, from somervillescott.com. 4 Habitat's new collection accessorises pale blue and grey with orange. Baroda stool, £69, from Habitat. 5 The textile designer Zoe Beck is becoming known for her bold use of colour. Marrakesh cushion, £55, from glimpseonline.com. 6 Sprinkle a bit of colour onto your table with these salt and pepper shakers, £5 for the set, from drinkstuff.com. 7 Teaming orange with black stops the all-over Tanged effect. Vase, £55, from boconcept.co.uk. 8 Thomas Lyte's address books are made from ethical and emes

TO FROCKS, SAYS PIP MCCORMAC

recycled materials; £65, from thomaslyte.com. 9 Ron Arad used his trademark curves for the Magis Voido rocker, £350, from purses.co.uk. 10 Funktion Alley sells the best young Scandi design. Hang On Honey pendant light, £185, from funktionalley.com. 11 Sainsbury's has relaunched its homewares under the Tu label, and it is more on trend than ever. Vase, £1.50, from Sainsbury's. 12 Hussein Chalayan's S/S09 catwalk show was full of zest. Dress, made to order, from huseinchalayan.com. 13 This desk is for the sexiest home office ever. £4,800, from jonathanbaring.co.uk. 14 The statement bed is becoming an interiors must-have. Moby bed, £3,200, from poliformuk.com. Catwalk image: Chris Moore